

WHY WORRY (A.K.A. THE WORRY SONG)

VERSE 1

Why worry in the morning when you're lying in bed?
About your past, your future or when you will get fed?
Why let a little worry take control of your head?
Isn't God much bigger than that?
Why worry about what clothes to wear, oh why make a fuss?
You'll only get them sweaty when you leave in a rush!
Then whizz back home in case you get run down by a bus!
Isn't God much bigger than that?

CHORUS

He made the Sun, all the stars in the whole universe,
And every plant and animal that lives on the Earth,
And He feeds them, clothes them but are you not worth
So much more than all of these?
He calls you by name and He welcomes you in,
Invites you as His weary child to rest in Him.
So you don't have to be, have to be, have to be
In a big hurry, hurry, hurry, why worry?
So don't worry!

VERSE 2

Why worry if you'll grow up to be big, tall and strong?
Or people looking funny at you singing this song?
If you're out of breath or tone deaf or your timing's all wrong,
When God loves you just the same.
Why worry if it always seems you're losing your friends?
You have a special friend in Jesus that will not end
If you've failed him for the very last time - yet again!
For He loves you anyway.

CHORUS

He made the Sun...

VERSE 3

So, don't worry about worrying about all that worries you,
About those worrying thoughts and fears that never come true.
Will something from behind that bush jump out and say "BOO!"?
No! There's no real need to be scared.
No need to look so downcast, no need to feel sad,
Lift up your head and talk to Jesus if you feel bad,
And He'll take away your worry so rejoice and be glad,
„Coz He loves you and He cares.

CHORUS

He made the Sun...
